

JOB TITLE:	PLANNER I
DEPARTMENT:	Planning
SUPERVISOR:	Planner IV and Planning Director
SUPERVISION EXERCISED:	None.
SALARY RANGE:
EXEMPT STATUS:	Non-exempt
LAST REVISION:	6/11/14

Job Scope

Summary: Performs a variety of entry-level technical and professional duties related to land use planning functions.

Other Information: Works under the close supervision of the Planning Director reforms beginning-level professional planning duties. Does technical data collection, research and analysis involving rural planning issues. Provides information to the public regarding planning and zoning standards as they relate to proposed construction, land purchases, and land use activities. Writes reports and presents findings to governing boards. Work involves a moderate level of complexity as incumbent uses independent judgment and decision making within a typically well defined area. Works independently with regular review and approval from supervisors. Involves regular communication with associates in the department; regular communication with other departments inside the organization; regular communication with local, state, and federal agencies; and regular contact with customers and applicants. Impact of errors is moderate, but distinct, because incumbent interprets various maps, land use, and building regulations for landowners making decisions about property. Through training and supervision, most errors can be identified and corrected prior to impacting end users. Potential for impact to the Department and Organizational reputation is inherent in the contact with the public. Work is typically performed in a protected indoor environment, but does involve occasional exposure to weather and inclement conditions as incumbent conducts field research. Involves regular travel in the local area with occasional travel outside the County.
